Do we have a regular maintenance window outside business hours? Previously, it has been ~4/5am during the week in case of reboots and bigger changes, so we don't have downtimes during critical hours.

Oh? I've been told it's around that time on Sat-Sun nights. At least that's the window I've been using so far. Looking at the infra pad it seems to be in place since late September 2016 (so just be before I joined).

I'm asking b/c I don't know myself ;-)
4/5 am Berlin time on Saturday or Sunday morning sound fine to me, as it doesn't interrupt with daily business

Would that time work out for you too?

We didn't have to make use of this very often in the past, and assuming it doesn't become a must-do every week, then sure!

Sounds good indeed - it shouldn't become a weekly activity given that time of the day, of course 😊
