Description

Current format:
LibreOffice 4.0
LibreOffice 4.1
LibreOffice 4.2
LibreOffice 4.3
LibreOffice 4.4
LibreOffice 5.0
LibreOffice 5.1

Suggested Format:

- 4.0 - 5.1 (in case of consecutive versions)
- 4.0, 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 5.0, 5.1 (in case of non consecutive versions)

Identical problem exists in the Tested with section:

Released Sep 30, 2016 — tested with:
LibreOffice 4.0, LibreOffice 4.1, LibreOffice 4.2, LibreOffice 4.3, LibreOffice 4.4, LibreOffice 5.0, LibreOffice 5.1,

Also above info should probably end with "." instead of ","

Additional QA IRC input was:

- instead of using "," to separate the numbers and have them all in one row, each number e.g. "4.4" could be enclosed in a little box with a background. Like a tag → even more human readable.

I don't know how to edit the description so adding a comment.

The current way this is solved leads to very long listing and wastes a lot of screen estate. See e.g. https://extensions.libreoffice.org/extensions/languagetool
