This is something I'd love to see for 2020, especially in conjunction with the 10/20 activities planned - such a map would provide a great overview!

If there's still interest, https://newdesign.libreoffice.org/events-map/ is still there.

As there are much fewer events taking place this year, this isn't super high priority IMO, but would be good to have for later in the year. We're planning a website redesign, so I'm not sure if it's something we could combine with Jean's SilverStripe module (and sorry Jean for not testing your proposal more thoroughly!).

With FOSDEM going online, it looks like we won't have many in-person events for a while. Will look again later in the year, in case some in-person events are planned...

It's unlikely there will be any in-person events in the next few months, but hopefully by Q2 there will be some things planned for later in the year, so let's revisit then.

Still very few in-person events, but more should hopefully start happening in autumn, so let's check then and make a map if there are enough to show... off.

Also bumping to Q1 2022, due to the lack of events at the moment.
